HETER ISKOH

I, the undersigned, _____ hereby acknowledge the receipt of $ from _____ from _____ with which to do business for a term of _____ from the date recorded below ("term"). I obligate myself to purchase with the above sum such merchandise of any kind as seem likely to be profitable. This money shall take precedence for investment over other capital of mine. Half of the sum shall ' be an interest free loan and half shall be invested for investor. Of all the profit that Hashem may grant me in connection with this merchandise, half thereof shall belong to me, and the other half to _____. Both parties shall also equally share the losses, G-d forbid. At the expiration of the term, I obligate myself to return promptly to _____ the principal and one half of the profit.

A claim of loss of principal must be substantiated by the testimony of two witnesses admissible in accordance with Orthodox Jewish law. I waive the right to substantiate loss by any other means.

Claims regarding the amount of profit must be substantiated by an oath in the presence of an Orthodox Rabbi, his congregation and a Rabbinical court. I waive the right to substantiate profits by any other means.

Investor agrees to forgive all claims, including the oath, if I pay _____ principal plus _____ % of the principal, per annum, in lieu of his share of the profit, regardless of the actual profit. All the stipulations relating to the credibility of my statements shall remain in effect until I return the aforementioned principal and profits. I acknowledge that I received consideration of one dollar for my labor.
